

NEWS for you

March 2, 2026

Dear Friends of the Wendt & Kühn,

The first warm rays of sunshine are treating us, and the scent of spring is already in the air. The new products from our will put you in a springtime mood right now.

Many people associate Spring with new beginnings. To align with this, our collection introduces new figurines each Spring. From time to time, however, newness can be tinged with a streak of melancholy – for instance when figurines leave our collection and return to our legendary treasure-trove of archive models.

Read today's newsletter for details of our new products – and those we're bidding farewell.

Heavenly greetings
Your Wendt & Kühn KG

A CHEERFUL START TO SPRING

The official start of Spring on March 20 is still a little way off, but the first new products from our manufactory are already bursting with the joys of the new season and will chase away the gloom of winter. Our enchanting figurines are available to purchase from authorized retailers and from our stores in Grünhainichen and Seiffen.

New products for March

GIRL WITH MARIGOLD

During the summer months, you can find them in flower beds and on balconies: marigolds. In the hands of the new Blossom Child, they bloom all year round.

ANGEL WITH FLUTE IN GREEN EGG

It’s a well-known fact that the Wendt & Kühn angels are not just there to enjoy at Christmas – they love to keep you company all year round and have recently made a surprise reappearance at Easter.

IS YOUR COLLECTION MISSING SOMETHING?

This year, too, we’ll be saying goodbye to some of the cherished figurines in our collection. The Number Girls, four of the angel musicians, the Miner, and the Candelabra will return to our historical treasure-trove of archive models for at least five years.

Three of the hard-working little gnomes in pointy red hats are also taking leave of their comrades. Why not take the opportunity to make a long-held wish come true, either for yourself or someone you love.
